Shipping Men Decide to Run a Sailor Boarding House Here.

The United States Home for sailors regularly opens for business tomorrow. The location selected is on the mauks

The location selected is on the manka side of Queen near Richards street. Seamen will now have a regular place to go to as they do in all the large seaport cities of the world.

Messrs. Turk & Lewis who have undertaken the management of the home feel sure they can make it a success.

The first business transacted by the new home was the shipping of the crew of the Henry B. Hyde which leaves for New York, Wednesday or Thursday of this week. Regarding religious services the managers of the home have decided that they will have none regularly unless some of the organizations of town see fit to send workers to the place. These will always be welcome. place. These will always be welcome. Sailors of all denominations will be received at the home. They will not be compelled to prove good moral character or sobriety as a prerequisite for accommodation.

Will Bore Deeper.

The reports current on the street regarding the failure of one of the wells on Oahu Plantation are without foundation. One of the pumps which has been set up below the level of the ground has not given the satisfaction anticipated, as it was not set far enough down. To offset this the well is to be bored deeper to bring the flow of water up higher.

Funeral Today.

The funeral of the late Geo. Bruns will take place this day at 3 p. m. from the Phytian Castle. Friends and acquaintances respectfully invited to attend.

Body Cremated.

The San Francisco lodge of Odd Fellows of which W. S. Brown, killed in an explosion about three weeks ago, belonged, has sent here for the body.

The body has been lying in the Masonic receiving vault at Waikiki since the funeral, and was found on examination to be in no condition to ship. Yesterday it was cremated and the ashes will be sent to San Francisco by the next steamer.
